

GERMAN DEFENSES YIELD BEFORE COLOGNE

SPECTACULAR ADVANCES UP TO TEN MILES MADE INSIDE ENEMY'S RICH SAAR BASIN

U. S. Third Army Moves Up to Within Eight-Mile Cannon Range of Citadel of Saarbrücken Hinting at Withdrawal

RESISTANCE AT KOSLAR AND JUNGERSDORF WANE

BULLETIN
London, Nov. 29.—(P)—American tanks and infantry drove deeper into the corrodng German front along the Roer river today after forcing the Germans from five towns in bitter battles to force open the gates to Cologne, 23 miles away. Langerwehe, last major communications point west of the Roer and four miles from the river citadel of Duren, fell late yesterday, dispatches from the First Army said. The town had been entered Monday morning and the Germans did not attempt a counter-attack after quitting its eastern limits. Also seized were Hurtgen, Kleinhan, Jungersdorf and Koslar.

By WILLIAM FRYE
London, Nov. 29.—(P)—German defenses yielded before Cologne today and American tanks and infantry captured the ruins of the forest battlefield town of Hurtgen, broke organized resistance at Koslar and seized Jungersdorf after fighting three days for every house. More spectacular advances, some ranging up to ten miles, were made in the center along a 26-mile front inside Germany's rich Saar basin. The U. S. Third Army moved up to within eight-mile cannon range of the citadel of Saarbrücken. The Germans spoke of a general withdrawal north of Strasburg.

Hurtgen is 27½ miles southwest of Cologne. Jungersdorf is four miles from Duren (39,000) and Koslar is less than two from Julich. Both Duren and Julich are fortress towns on the Roer river line, last great natural barrier before the Rhine. Other Americans of the first and Ninth armies crawling slowly forward along a 25-mile front between Linnich and Hurtgen in the Cologne plain east of Aachen fought for every house and cellar in the ruined villages of Inden, Langerwehe, Lammersdorf and Grosau. Some were within 2 miles of Cologne. Between the towns were intricate trench systems like those of the last war.

Though organized resistance collapsed in Koslar under the impact of Lt. Gen. William H. Simpson's Ninth Army, a few Germans held out in the mud. Mechanized Third Army cavalry entered the outskirts of Ssare Union. In the north the U. S. Ninth Army captured intact today a bridge over the Inde river at Alt-dorf, south of Julich while supreme headquarters announced that Allied forces in Holland north of Venlo "are in contact with the few remaining enemy strongpoints west of the Maas."

In the same area fighterbombers attacked German positions yesterday and today's Allied communiqué suggested preparations for a new Allied thrust in this northernmost point of the western front.

Gen. Patton's Third Army men on their new seven-mile front in Germany were within artillery range of three of the Saar basin's principal cities — Saarbrücken, (Turn to Page Seven)

Biddle Silent On Charges of Littell
Washington, Nov. 29.—(P)—The justice department row over the attempted firing of Assistant Attorney General Norman Littell was carried forward today in a Littell lawsuit suggested by Attorney General Biddle "conduct x x x contrary to basic principles of good government."

This memorandum, sent to the Senate War Investigating Committee, was described as having said among other things that Biddle intervened in a department case in behalf of Thomas G. Corcoran, an early member of the new deal brain trust now in private law practice. (Biddle declined comment, saying he had not seen the Littell document. Corcoran was not reached for comment.)

ARTILLERY TEAM TO TOUR THROUGH AREA
Washington, Nov. 29.—(P)—Captain William Z. Scott, Lansford, Pa., is one of five officers who will escort 27 enlisted men who saw their artillery ammunition actioned in the front lines of western Europe in a tour of war plants throughout the country during the next six weeks.

The men have been sent by General Eisenhower as "special emissaries," the war department said, with instructions to "go back home and tell simply and frankly just what you were up against."

A tentative list of Pennsylvania cities to be visited includes: Pittsburgh, McKeesport, Johnstown, Butler, Oil City, Titusville, Erie, Danville, Harrisburg, Lancaster and Philadelphia.

COL. ELLIOTT TO WED
Beverly Hills, Calif., Nov. 29.—(P)—Col. Elliott Roosevelt said today through a spokesman that he and Faye Emerson, blonde movie actress, will be married "sometime within a week."

Open arrow indicates probable path of projected drive on Cologne by advancing Allies, while small arrows spot gains along the front by the British Second, U. S. Ninth, and U. S. First Armies. Julich has been bracketed by U. S. Ninth Army forces, which drove to the Roer River at either side of the town.

Soldier Vote Hikes Majority For President

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—(P)—The soldier vote tabulation today gave President Roosevelt a majority of almost 90,000 in Pennsylvania and practically assured the victory of the entire Democratic statewide ticket, including close contests for U. S. senator and the state supreme court. The president received a majority of 66,247 in the civilian vote over Governor Thomas E. Dewey and the soldier vote from 50 counties, including Philadelphia, increased it to 89,879.

Congressman Francis J. Myers, Democrat, was given a combined civilian and soldier margin of 22,632 over U. S. Senator James J. Davis, Republican, who sought a third full term in the senate. Before entering the senate Davis served as secretary of labor in the cabinets of President Harding, Coolidge and Hoover. The civilian vote gave Myers a margin of 12,481 over Davis. The tightest contest of the election developed between Federal Circuit Court Judge Charles Alvin Jones, Democrat, and Justice Howard W. Hughes, Republican, for the state supreme court. The civilian vote left Jones only 1,199 ahead of Hughes but the military tabulation from the 50 counties reporting boosted it to 13,042.

Allegheny, which went Democratic in the civilian vote, is the largest county yet to report its soldier count. In Philadelphia President Roosevelt received close to 17,000 soldier vote majority for an approximate 150,000 GI-civilian lead. Philadelphia's unofficial returns gave Roosevelt 24,850 to Dewey's 17,919.

For congress, Republicans and Democrats elected 15 each with three contests still to be decided by the soldier vote count. They are the 7th, Delaware county, and the 29th and 30th, both in Allegheny county. Pennsylvania's present lineup in congress is 20 Republicans and 13 Democrats. Republicans retained control of both branches of the state legislature but the G. O. P. majority in the house has yet to be determined.

Current Food Point Values May Continue For December

Washington, Nov. 29.—(P)—A fresh disagreement between government agencies on basic rationing policy may result in continuing of current food point values through December. With normal announcement of new values due tomorrow or Friday, the Office of Price Administration and the War Food Administration are deadlocked over proposed revisions. As a result, Stabilization Director Fred M. Vinson has been called upon for the second time in the last four months to iron out rationing differences between the two organizations. The trouble developed when OPA recommended to WFA that most meat cuts still unrationed be restored to the point charts in December. OPA also suggested that some canned vegetables, such as peas and corn and perhaps beans, should go back on the ration list.

WFA, which has authority to ration or unration food commodities, objected to both proposals. It contends that while there may be shortages of particular point-free items, there are no important overall shortages and that substitutes are available for scarce products. WFA's position, a spokesman said, is that as few food items as possible should be rationed as the end of the war in Germany draws nearer. This is to guard against any sudden accumulation of huge surpluses with termination of hostilities.

CONSCRIPTION ISSUE MOVES TO SOLUTION

Canadian Parliament to Resume Deliberations Today After Debate Long Into Night

KING WINNING SUPPORT

By HARRY T. MONTGOMERY
Ottawa, Nov. 29.—(P)—Canada's explosive conscription problem today moved toward solution in its purely parliamentary phases, but drafted troops in Pacific coast camps still were protesting against the government's new policy of sending some of them overseas. In a rare secret session, parliament heard Defense Minister A. G. L. McNaughton until nearly midnight last night, then adjourned to resume open deliberations this afternoon.

In a statement issued late last night at Vancouver, Maj. Gen. R. R. Pearkes, commanding officer in that area, declared that one nullification of the conscription act, British Columbia had resulted from a misunderstanding. A spokesman said simultaneously that the situation there seemed to be "easier" after one unit supporting the demonstrators had turned in their arms.

In parliament, after a week of one of the gravest crises in Canada's modern history revolving around the traditional racial conflict over conscription of troops for overseas duty, Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King appeared to have won sufficient support to give him a comfortable majority on a vote of confidence to be taken in the next few days.

Protest demonstrations of a less violent nature were staged elsewhere in British Columbia, all of these involving English-speaking units, and sporadic demonstrations by small groups and individuals occurred in other parts of Canada. A military spokesman at Terrace, B. C., described the striking troops as "mutineers" as they interfered with other troops in performance of duty.

Strike Call in Belgium Gains Mild Support

By ROGER D. GREENE
Brussels, Nov. 29.—(P)—A call by the resistance front for a nationwide general strike in protest against Premier Hubert Pierlot's government apparently had gained little response today. Columns of demonstrators, however, were reported converging on the capital for a "national day of protest."

The Communists, estimated at 40,000 strong in the resistance movement, called for a full general strike until Pierlot's government collapsed, while other resistance groups urged only a one-day strike. (In Moscow, the Soviet army newspaper Red Star linked the Pierlot government with a discussion of survival of the fifth column in western Europe. "Firing at the people, the Pierlot government has proved its special regard for elements that collaborated with the Hitlerite invaders," Red Star said, adding "a fifth column still attempts to prevent consolidation of democratic forces for speeding up the defeat of the enemy of mankind.")

U. S. HOSPITAL IS WRECKED BY ROBOT

Somewhere in Belgium, Nov. 29.—(P)—A German flying bomb struck and wrecked a U. S. army general hospital well behind the battle lines several days ago, killing 12 persons, injuring nearly 50 and forcing evacuation of the hospital's 1,150 patients, it was disclosed today.

The bomb demolished the laboratory-pharmacy section of the hospital. The blast blew in the walls and demolished the roof of the remaining section of the building, making it unusable. Fifteen nurses were sent to a rest area suffering from shock.

Bombers Over Tokyo Radio Broadcast Says

By the Associated Press
Radio Tokyo said today that American bombers were again over the Japanese capital. The broadcast came at 11:30 a. m. today and was recorded by the Federal Communications Commission. The broadcast said: "A minor formation of enemy planes penetrated the Tokyo area a little before 12 o'clock (noon), Nov. 29. In intercepting the Japanese are now giving hot reception to the enemy raiders."

Prime Minister Warns War Against Germany May Last Longer Than He Predicted

London, Nov. 29.—(P)—Prime Minister Churchill warned today that the war against Germany might last longer than he had thought. He said his recent prediction of a possible end by "early summer" might be revised by dropping the word "early."

Churchill addressed parliament after King George VI, opening the 10th session of the legislators elected in 1935, said that Britain intended to "reinforce as rapidly as possible the United Kingdom forces" now fighting Japan.

The prime minister announced for the first time that the port of Antwerp had finally been opened and is now receiving large convoys of ocean going ships, thus making an incomparable sea base available for the nourishment of the northern group of British armies and the various groups of American armies also deployed in these operations.

Churchill praised the progress of the Allied armies on the western front. "The enemy everywhere has been thrust back," he said. "Any large and effective breakthrough in the German front in the region of Cologne would have the highest strategic consequences."

But, Churchill added, "we must remember that the enemy whose country is invaded has also the supreme stimuli which we ourselves responded to in the very dark days of 1940 and 1941."

"Victory remains our supreme aim," the king said.

Heavies Blast Railroad And Oil Targets

London, Nov. 29.—(P)—More than 1,000 heavy bombers and 1,000 American fighters attacked rail and oil targets in northwest Germany today. The huge natural oil refinery at Mischel and the rail yards at Hamm were the prime objectives of the Fortresses and Liberators, escorted by Mustangs, Thunderbolts and Lightnings of the U. S. Eighth and Ninth Air Forces.

British heavy bombers jolted German rail lines at Essen and Neuss in the Ruhr early today. Bombardiers aimed their loads of explosive on pathfinder flares dropped through layers of clouds. An area of some four square miles of cloud, reflected the glare of fires set in Essen. It was the RAF's second attack in 24 hours on Neuss, in the Duesseldorf area.

British Mosquito bombers roared over Nurnberg, in southwestern Germany, with two-ton blockbusters earlier in the night. An air ministry communiqué said three bombers failed to return from the two operations.

SURGEON PERFORMS RARE AMPUTATIONS

Newtown, Nov. 29.—(P)—A surgeon amputated the right leg and right arm of a 66-year-old brakeman as he lay under a Reading Company locomotive last night. The surgery freed J. C. Crozier, of Newtown, exactly one hour and 28 minutes after the locomotive ran over him and pinned him to the tracks. Crozier was in Abington Memorial hospital today. His condition was reported critical.

Notice Served On Poland by Russia

Moscow, Nov. 29.—(P)—Russia served notice today through the columns of Pravda today that the Polish government in exile had become a hostile political force with which any future negotiations were obviously impossible. Accusing Polish reactionaries of a scheme to split the Allies and foster a new war, Pravda said it looked upon the withdrawal of Stanislaw Mikolajczyk as premier as destroying the last hopes of rapprochement with the exiled regime.

Mikolajczyk received gentle treatment in Pravda's discussion and apparently the possibility was envisaged that he and a number of other members of the peasant party abroad might go to Lublin, the seat of the Soviet-sponsored Committee of National Liberation. There was no evidence here to indicate doubt that he would be welcomed by the committee if he chose to join it.

KILLED WHILE HUNTING

Clearfield, Nov. 29.—(P)—Struck in the back by a shot fired by a companion, Abraham T. Ireland, 43, surveyor, was killed yesterday while bear hunting on Little Trout run, Goshen township, Corcoran E. S. Erhard reported. The companion said he mistook Ireland's black hair which he grasped through the laurel for a bear and shot at it. State police are investigating.

ACTION FLARES OVER STORM-BOGGED LEYTE

American Destroyers Brave Mined Inner Philippine Seas to Fire Shells On Ormoc

JAPS ATTACK SHIPPING

General MacArthur's Headquarters, Philippines, Nov. 29.—(P)—Action flared on both sides of storm-bogged Leyte as American destroyers braved the mined inner Philippine seas to shell Ormoc and the Japanese airforce bombed U. S. warships and transports in Leyte gulf, headquarters announced today. (Tokyo radio, in unconfirmed broadcasts, expanded the Pacific's war picture, saying Nipponese troops are locked in battle on little Morotai island, 300 miles south of the Philippines after a surprise counterlanding there Sunday.)

The naval and air action at Leyte reported today by Gen. Douglas MacArthur was in sharp relief to the ground situation where the Yanks, pressing the enemy along the Ormoc corridor, still were at a near halt because of torrential rain.

American patrol-torpedo boats have been operating in the Camotes sea but this was the first appearance of destroyers. They had to move through narrow straits and past enemy-held islands. On the other side of Leyte, 30 Japanese torpedo planes and dive bombers swarmed through thick overcast during daylight hours Monday to hit American shipping in Leyte gulf, but 13 were knocked down by unusually deadly ack-ack fire and two others destroyed by fighters.

General MacArthur acknowledged "some casualties and damage." Units in Leyte gulf included a battleship and other warships and transports.

Associated Press Correspondent Dean Schneider, aboard one of the destroyers, said the force circled about Ormoc harbor at slow speed and fired salvo after salvo at enemy targets without drawing return fire. The destroyers left unscratched. Rain clouds acted as a shield.

MacArthur's communique today made brief mention of Morotai, reporting only that enemy night raiders caused "slight damage."

Resistance Heavy in the Po Valley

Rome, Nov. 29.—(P)—Eighth Army troops pushing into the Po valley are meeting heavy resistance in the Alberto area about five miles northeast of Faenza. Allied headquarters announced today. South of Faenza, British and Indian troops of the Fifth Army have made further progress in high ground to the north and west of Modigliana.

Strong enemy raids on American Fifth Army positions below Bologna have been driven off, the communique said. Air operations were restricted by weather. The Mediterranean Allied Air Forces flew approximately 470 sorties yesterday, from which three aircraft are missing.

SCHOOL STRIKE ENDS

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 29.—(P)—A second strike in two weeks among 225 Sharsburg high school students ended today pending a meeting of the school board tonight to their demands that Albert Ferraro be re-hired as basketball coach. The school board agreed to hear the issue if the students returned to classes. The students struck the first time in protecting Ferraro's replacement.

Alias Santa Claus Makes Annual Bid for the Destitute

With Christmas just around the next street corner it's high time that each and every one give thought to Old Alias Santa Claus. The old boy dropped into the office this morning and yanked a paper out of his pocket. Waving it around, he quoth: "This Alias Santa Claus business isn't anything new. Not by a couple of jugsful. I had thought I was the bird who had started all this and now I find some guy who lived back in the 15th century beat me to it. He had the idea and it sort of gets my goat to know that I am not the originator of the whole idea. Here, read this!"

And Alias stuck the paper right in front of the noses of the gang and they read as follows: "Whosoever on the night of ye nativity of ye young Lord Jesus, in ye great snows, shall fare forth bearing a succulent bone for ye lost and lamenting hounde, a wisp of hay for ye shivering horse, a cloak of warm raiment for ye stricken beggar, a bundle of faggots for ye twittering crone, a flagon of red wine for him whose narrow withers, a garland of bright berries for one who has worn chains, a dish of crumbs with a song of love for all huddled birds who thought that song was dead, a divers lush sweetmeats for such babies' faces as peer from windows."

"To him shall be proffered and returned gifts of such an astonishment as will rival the hues of the peacock and the rambles of heaven, so that though he live to ye great age when man goes stooping and querulous because of the nothing that is left to him, yet shall he walk upright and resplendent, as one whose heart's shines

More than 100 persons viewed a Siamese calf born this week at the farm of Frank Crooks on the Limestone-Seneca Junction road near Kane. Joined together at the center of the body, the animal had two fully developed heads, one with a full set of teeth; two tails, eight fully developed legs and another leg, really two, joined at the knee joint and containing four hoofs. The cow which bore the freak, died a few minutes before the birth of the Siamese animal.

NEW LOCOMOTIVE

A fundamentally new type of coal-burning steam locomotive, powered by a turbine in place of the cylinders, pistons and driving rods of the conventional design, has been completed for the Pennsylvania Railroad. It is the first direct drive steam turbine locomotive ever built in the United States, and is now undergoing tests to determine the adaptability of this type of engine to the Pennsylvania's long-distance high-speed passenger and freight service.

Post-war automobiles may adapt some characteristics of the injection carburetion of today's aircraft engine, for more even distribution among the cylinders. This would be of great benefit to automobiles and trucks operating at high altitudes over mountainous country.

ROLLIN K. MEAD

Youngsville, Nov. 29.—Rollin K. Mead, 46 years of age, passed away Thanksgiving morning at his home in Washington, D. C. He was a former Youngsville town lad who made good in his life's work.

Rollin K. Mead was the youngest son of Wilbur F. and Chloe Smith Mead of Brokenstraw township. He received his primary education at School No. 1, the first organized in Brokenstraw township, and is thought by some to be the first public school in Warren county.

In this school he came under the tutelage of such instructors as Miss Hattie Astell of Youngsville, Frank Knapp, D. F. A. Wice-lock, C. E. and the late ex-judge Wm. E. Rice, all later of Warren. Later he attended Youngsville school and came under the coaching of ex-judge D. U. Arid of Warren.

Later he attended and graduated from Edinboro Normal School and taught in common schools in Warren and McKean counties. He was principal of the school at Boonville, N. Y., and was also associated with the U. S. Military Station of Peekskill, N. Y.

Following his teaching he became interested in publication and assisted in the organization of the United Typothetae of America, which he has served since that time until his death.

death. Much of the unusual success of the Warren National Bank was attributed to his expert knowledge of business conditions, his universal popularity throughout northwestern Pennsylvania, and his exceptional sense of public relations and the need for institutional friendliness.

He continued his education along professional lines, attending the American Institute of Banking and the Graduate School of Banking of the American Bankers' Association at Rutgers University, completing the two courses in 1937 and 1943 respectively.

Upon the entry of this country into the First World War, Mr. Mackay promptly volunteered, and was sent to the Second Officers' Training Camp at Fort Niagara, where he was commissioned a First Lieutenant of Infantry in the National Army Nov. 27, 1917. He was assigned to Camp Lee, Virginia where he was placed in charge of the mustering office and later promoted to assistant personnel adjutant. In July, 1918, he was promoted to a Captaincy and served until his discharge in September, 1919.

The life of Robert W. Mackay was a continuous story of warm-hearted interest in the welfare of his community, which showed itself in many fields of activity. He became a member of the School Board in 1929, became its treasurer in 1934, and served in that capacity until his death. His attention to the problems of the schools was unflinching and tireless, and he was especially active in promoting music and musical instruction, in which Warren schools especially excel. He was recently a member of the Library Board.

Fraternal activities attracted his interest and he became a member of North Star Lodge No. 241, Free and Accepted Masons, Occidental Chapter No. 235 Royal Arch Masons, Warren Commandery No. 65 Knights Templar, Buffalo Consistory, and the Acca Temple A. A. O. N. S. M. of Richmond, Va. Shrine. He was formerly active in Warren Lodge No. 223, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

He continued his interest in military and veterans' affairs as a member of the American Legion, Chief Complanter Post No. 130 where he served as a trustee. He was a lifelong member of the First Presbyterian church of Warren and served as its treasurer for a period of twenty-three years from 1921 until his death. He had much to do with the planning and construction of the Watson Memorial Home, becoming a director in 1934 and serving as its secretary and treasurer until his death. In 1929 he became treasurer of the Y. M. C. A. and a director in 1936. He was a director of the Boy Scouts from 1931 to 1939, and a director of the Warren Chamber of Commerce for a number of years. With his wife he organized the Allegheny Hiking Club, planned trips through the most interesting trails in Warren county, and took his last hike with them as recently as Sunday.

He was county chairman of the First and Second War Bond drives, and active in all subsequent drives as well. On January 27, 1921 he was married to Louise Johnson Rogers, a native of Warren, who survives him, with a daughter, Joanna Louise, a student in the University of Rochester School of Nursing. One son, Robert West Mackay, Junior, died August 1, 1935. One brother, George Mackay of Warren, also survives him.

In the death of Robert West Mackay Warren loses not only one of its most outstanding business leaders; not only a faithful and untiring servant of literally scores of vital community interests; not only a native son to whom the hills of his county were an integral part of his life; but a warm, cordial personality who had no enemies and was a friend of every man.

The African weaver bird actually ties knots in weaving its curious nest.

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS—Chapter 3—A Cut-out Comic for Children . . . By Laurene Rose Diehl

War Dep't Announces Plan For Announcing Casualties

Under new plans announced by the War Department at Washington more detailed news concerning casualties will be sent more promptly to families of soldiers wounded, missing in action, or killed.

The new procedure, effective immediately, is explained in a Washington dispatch to the New York Times as follows:

"Original notification of the casualty will be followed by a letter directed to the emergency addressee from the commanding officer or the chaplain of the soldier's organization. This will be done soon after the casualty occurs and will give specific details as to the circumstances and the nature of the wounds and, in case of death, the funeral arrangements and other information.

"In addition to supplying information direct from the field, a new procedure is being adopted regarding progress reports on persons wounded or seriously ill. It embodies writing and dispatching from the overseas hospital of a letter containing in nontechnical language a brief description of the wounds suffered by the soldier. In the case of soldiers wounded in combat but not seriously ill, it is provided that a postcard will be sent each 15 days stating in simple terms the condition of the soldier concerned.

"War Department officials are confident that these procedures will be of great comfort to the families of casualties, as nearly all notices thus far sent out have been answered by inquiries for further information. Families of wounded soldiers always wish to know how a man is wounded, what part of his body was struck, and what progress he is making toward recovery.

"Heretofore, the only information available in the War Department was contained in the first casualty report received either in one-code-word or three-code-word letters, indicating that the individual had been listed among casualties of a certain date. Hereafter, during the interim between the receipt of the original notification and the direct supplementary report, there will be no further information available at the War Department. Relatives and friends of army personnel are asked to keep this in mind during the period of anxiety while they are waiting for a second report.

"Both letters and postcards relating to casualties will now be forwarded from the overseas theaters to the United States by air-mail so that the delay will be held to a minimum.

"The new plan does not eliminate the present 'message of cheer' which each emergency addressee is encouraged to send to wounded soldiers once a month. The adjutant general will continue to handle this service because these messages not only give the wounded men pleasure and consolation, but they help support morale on the home front. There will be no change, either, in the present policy whereby a special report is submitted to the adjutant general and passed on to the emergency addressee in the case of any patient who has been hospitalized for wounds, injuries or illness, and who takes a turn for the worse."

LUDLOW

Ludlow, Nov. 28—Thanksgiving service was held in Moriah Lutheran at ten o'clock on Thursday morning with a splendid attendance. The Rev. Hans Pearson officiated. Special music was given by the choir, "Praise Ye The Father" by Gounod and "Rejoice Ye and Give Thanks."

The Lutheran choir began rehearsals on Tuesday night of last week for the cantata, "Yuletide Memories," by Ira B. Wilson which will be given at 4:30 p. m. Sunday, Dec. 17th in the church. Mrs. Emil Nelson will direct the cantata. Among new members of the cantata are Miss Elizabeth Hess, soprano, Public School Music Supervisor, Mr. John Gaynor, tenor, teacher, Mrs. L. B. Connelly, soprano well known in this area, Julius Swanson, bass, former member of the choir, Mrs. Maurice Palmer, Miss, soprano, who is living in Ludlow while her husband is in the service, Mrs. Homer Gilfert and Mrs. Algot Swanson, altos, former members of the choir. Some of the above will be soloists and others are Carl L. Swanson and Mrs. Emil Nelson. This cantata was to have been given last year but due to illness of too many members had to be canceled. A group of young girls from the Ludlow school will be used in very effective parts of the cantata.

The Moriah Sunday school delivered assigned parts of the Christmas program on Sunday and plan to begin rehearsals in the near future. Gustav Olson and Mrs. Leroy Johnson head this program. The intermediate department and two of the primary department teachers met on Monday evening of last week to plan the program as nearly as possible. A Junior choir will participate and orchestra effects will be used. There will be no speaking parts for children over the sixth grade with the exception of two readers and the herald. All above the sixth grade will either participate in the orchestra or the Junior choir. The spoken program will use all of the small children which will be of interest to everyone.

Mrs. Arthur Christensen, president of the church, will be in charge of the service.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ernest Martin and over the sixth grade with the exception of two readers and the herald. All above the sixth grade will either participate in the orchestra or the Junior choir. The spoken program will use all of the small children which will be of interest to everyone.

dent of the American Legion Auxiliary, was hostess to the Auxiliary on Tuesday evening of last week. Mrs. Christensen conducted the meeting and particularly asked that all of these people who participated in the coupon drive sponsored by this organization be thanked and especially did she praise the efforts of the school children who helped to make this drive such a success. She announced that the state drive has gone over the top so that more than enough was received to purchase the Club Mobile which will be operated in the front lines. The new chairman for this drive in town for 1944 and 1945 is Mrs. Clyde Gilfert. Through the same drive, over 3000 decks of cards were given to soldiers. Let us remember to save all of the coupons we receive in merchandise purchase and contribute them to this organization which does so much good in this way. Several chairmen were appointed for various committees as, Mrs. Silas Johnson, War Activities and Bond Sales; Mrs. C. J. Carlson, Rehabilitation; Mrs. Julius Swanson, Press and Radio Publicity. Christmas plans were made and a discussion of veterans Christmas boxes ensued with details in another item. Mrs. Christensen served lunch at a late hour.

Basket ball season arrives in Ludlow on Friday night when Mt. Jewett comes to play the Ludlow High School team.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gilfert of Ludlow and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Carlson of Kane were among the insurance representatives attending the Farm Bureau Insurance dinner given in the Lafayette Hotel in Meadville last Monday night, Nov. 20. This dinner was the winding up of a contest in Life Insurance sales which was won by Crawford Co. and one in which the losers entertained the winners. There were some splendid speakers.

The Ludlow Study Group felt particularly fortunate in having as their guests on Wednesday evening, the twenty-second, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gerber of Duke Center, Pa., and Duane, of Jamestown. They gave a most timely and interesting talk concerning the Philippine Islands where they lived for

"Kitchen Gifts" Easy On Sugar

By GAYNOR MADDOX NEA Staff Writer

Here are suggestions for home-made gifts which are delicious and which make it easy on your sugar too! Peanut butter and honey combine to make a lovely ice-cream sauce! A jar of this, along with another of butter-scooped or chocolate—both red ribbon-tied, are worthy of the truest friend.

For your discriminating friends, pick a roll basket with a bottle of tarragon or garlic vinegar, a jar of peanut oil and one of mixed herbs, too—and the French dressing recipe written in fancy script and tied like a diploma. If an inventory of your home canned foods and homemade jellies reveals an ample supply, a jar of one of these is a perfect Christmas gift from your kitchen to theirs with the merriest of Christmas wishes!

Peanut Butter Sauce
One-fourth cup honey, 1/2 cup peanut butter, about 1/4 cup water. Bring honey to a boil. Then blend in peanut butter. Add enough water to make good sauce consistency. Serves 5 to 6.

Plum Pudding
One pound seedless raisins, 1 pound currants, 1/2 cup nutmeats (mixed), 2 1/2 cups flour, 4 eggs, 2 cups molasses, 2 cups buttermilk, 1 1/2 cups finely chopped or ground suet, 1/2 cup fruit juice with wine or brandy flavoring added, 2 1/2 cups fine dry bread crumbs, 2 teaspoons soda, 1 teaspoon cloves, 1 teaspoon allspice, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 2 teaspoons salt.

Prepare fruit and nutmeats and dredge with 1 cup of the flour. Beat eggs until light and fluffy, add molasses, then buttermilk, suet and flavored fruit juice. Stir in bread crumbs, then remaining flour, which has been sifted with soda, spices and salt. Add dredged fruits and nutmeats and mix. Pour into two greased 3-pound molds, cover and steam for three hours. Cool puddings, wrap in heavy wax paper and store. The puddings keep for weeks in a cool place. Re-steam and serve hot with your favorite hard sauce.

Hard Sauce
One-fourth cup butter, 1 cup powdered sugar, 1 tablespoon molasses, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon grated orange rind, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, pinch of salt. Cream butter thoroughly. Gradually add sugar and beat until very light. Add molasses, cinnamon, grated orange rind, vanilla and salt. Put in cool place.

French Dressing
One cup peanut or vegetable oil, 1/2 cup mild vinegar, 2 tablespoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon paprika, 3/4 teaspoon grated suet, 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, 1/2 teaspoon horseradish, 1/2 teaspoon mustard. Combine all ingredients and beat until a well-blended mixture is formed. Allow 2 peeled, garlic buds to stand in dressing. Serve on any salad.

Motor car operators' license renewal forms are to be mailed out from the Department of Revenue at Harrisburg December 4th and those who have not previously notified the department concerning changes of address should do so immediately.

Natural beauties frequently suffer so that progress may be made toward one goal or another, an instance of this fact being seen in the cutting down of the beautiful property purchased by Dr. R. D. Smedley for his clinic at 1309 Pennsylvania avenue, east. The two spruces on the front lawn have attracted much attention from passersby and it is to be regretted that one must be lost in doing over the property.

That little reminder the Warren County Motor Club put out the other day is an authentic one, as current operators will learn to their sorrow if they haven't sent in a change of address to the Department of Revenue before December 4. Such little items as permits and application forms are not forwarded to the new address unless the department has been notified of the change, and a lot of people might find themselves

Making Good Money ... and Headed for TROUBLE

You know her. You see her every day. She is smart enough to make good money ... foolish enough to spend it all. And she is headed for trouble.

"I can't save now," she says. "There are too many things I want. I'll start later on ... not now."

Other folks, in other times, have talked that way. Lots of them came to grief. For industry can slacken ... jobs can dwindle ... payrolls can fall. Then comes the pinch! And the pinch is felt

WE WILL MISS BOB

Warren won't be quite the same now that Bob Mackay has left us.

Hundreds of citizens are going to miss the cheerful, jovial greeting he always had for his friends—and they were legion. A friendly exchange of "good mornings," interspersed with Mr. Mackay's timely quips, had become a daily habit with many who had occasion to meet this outstanding man on the streets regularly.

But nowhere, excepting in the grief-stricken home and the Warren National, will Bob be missed more than he will right here in the Times-Mirror office. A gifted writer he contributed regularly to the news and editorial columns of the paper. Writing for the paper was as much of a hobby with Bob as the Allegheny Hiking Club, and because of this he had over a long period of years been a constant contributor to the columns of the paper. He modestly preferred to remain anonymous so far as his writings were concerned even to the eulogy that appeared in this column but a month ago for his close friend and associate A. L. Schellhammer. He steadfastly refused to permit use of his name in connection with the editorial and we feel it is violating no confidences now to give "Bob" credit for one of his greatest dissertations.

Many, many more accolades can and will be laid at the bier of this fine Warren citizen, who for over a quarter of a century, had been a leader in business, political and civic enterprises. His had, indeed, been a long and useful career—including a never-ceasing interest in his church, his country, in politics as a member of the board of school directors; business enterprises; a consistent leadership in banking circles; energetic activity in behalf of community and civic organizations.

Attention will be called, again and again, to these numerous activities of a man whose career in the public service dated over most of his adult years. Any and all tributes paid to Bob Mackay for his community leadership will be richly deserved.

But, for our part, we prefer to remember Bob as one with a never-failing sense of humor, as one whose unfailing good cheer brightened many a day for many a Warren citizen.

MERRY CHRISTMAS BY V-MAIL

Christmas culminates the activity that has been taking place at all Navy V-Mail facilities, particularly at Pearl Harbor, where approximately 60,000 Christmas V-Mail greeting forms have been produced daily for distribution among service personnel.

With demands for this wartime substitute exceeding production capacity, millions of homes will receive these greetings which, although devoid of traditionally colorful designs, will convey the sentiments of the season.

The Navy urges that when the families and friends of the men overseas receive these V-Mail greetings that they reply by V-Mail and in this way contribute to lessening the airload.

Air transportation in the fighting areas is threatened as each advance is made; and in the event mails are clogged, V-Mail, as usual, has priority over all other mail.

PEACE FEELERS COMING?

Today's special by DeWitt MacKenzie, Associated Press war analyst: "We shouldn't be surprised to learn most any time now that Nazidom is putting out peace feelers again. My guess is that these inquiries will concern mainly the question of the personal security of Hitler and his captains. There's little else they could hope to bargain over, since unconditional surrender is customary for a country so utterly beaten as Germany will be."

Company I, 112th Infantry, is running true to tradition in the battle for France and Germany. Fine fellows have fallen, others are missing in action or are wounded. They are playing an important part on the western front.

A bear was driven into a western town by a heavy snow. Probably because it was hungry as a bear.

If the fuchrer still thinks he's the Hitler of old, there certainly is something wrong with his head.

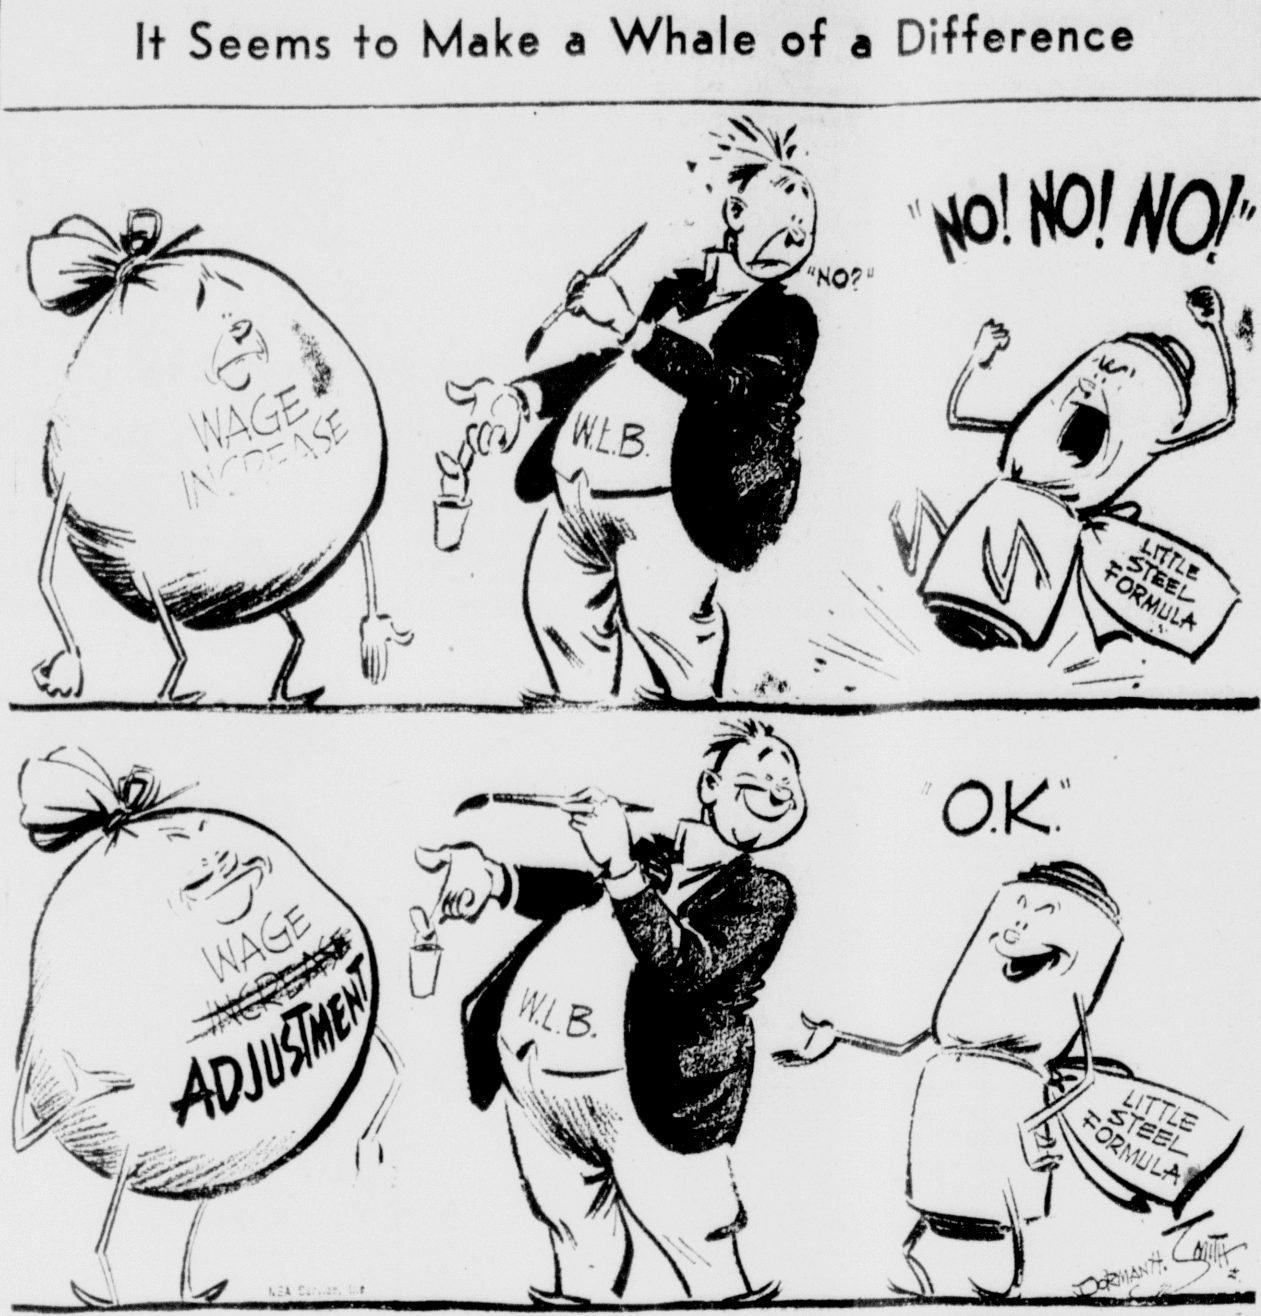

Keep Faith: Today read I Corinthians 13.

Membership Drive of YMCA Goes Sixty-Two Over Goal

Good strategy, coordinated attack, a will to win and plain hard work has brought a smashing, decisive victory to the Y. M. C. A. Task Force, which reported 617 members at the closing session of the membership campaign held last evening. With a goal of 555, the splendid results show a victory margin of 62 members, with some additional ones expected to come in tardily during the remainder of the week.

As the companies of the "Army" and "Navy" divisions made their reports last night, the campaign's experienced one thrill after another for the figures placed on the board revealed early in the tabulation that the big battle had been won—that these "Y" service men had done a magnificent job in the closing hours of the campaign.

With 132 members left to be secured after Monday night's report, there were many who felt the objective to be too far away to be reached in one day, but such reasoning failed to take into full account the determination and loyalty of the outstanding group of friends which had been enlisted for this effort. When the final count was in, it was seen that the "Army," commanded by N. D. Paterson, had secured 324 members, while W. E. Yeager's "Navy" division had reported 293 members. Both commanders congratulated and thanked their workers.

Highest honors in the campaign went to Company No. 1, A. H. Templeton captain. With a grand total of 86 members and 7011 points, this group of campaigners really made a grand showing. Running a good close second was Capt. Ray Ledebur's company, No. 7, which earned 5525 points with 82 members. Company No. 6, Captained by H. T. Flowers, which was in the lead Monday night dropped to third place, with members totaling 67 for 5720 points.

In all fairness, it should be pointed out that every Company did a fine job and that it was only because of this that the campaign was so successful. Commander-in-Chief Howard Alexander, in behalf of himself and the Board of Directors, expressed his deep appreciation for the excellent job done. General Secretary Ralph Wagner spoke briefly at the close of the meeting, extending the hearty thanks of the staff and expressing the feeling that such fine support was a challenge to the staff and Association—a challenge to justify this interest and loyalty by good service to members and community.

Three of the companies and their scores have been mentioned. The others, who are also to be congratulated upon their good work, are in order of standing:

Co. No. 2, D. H. Mowell, captain—65 members and 5330 points; Co. No. 4, G. S. Frantz, captain—57 members and 4955 points; Co. No. 5, R. R. Young, captain—61 members and 4860 points; Co. No. 3, G. G. Lind, captain—55 members and 5330 points; Co. No. 9, W. M. Hill, captain—47 members and 4660 points; Co. No. 8, S. S. Cobb, captain—53 members and 3960 points; Co. No. 10, E. H. Leffard, captain—44 members and 3875 points.

The supper last night was served by a group of ladies from the First Methodist church, and Rev. Furman, pastor of that church, led in the opening prayer. Before the reports were called for, Mr. Alexander referred to the sudden death a time while Mr. Gerber conducted The American School in Manila. They were forced to leave in July, 1941, so their information is first-hand. Mr. Gerber particularly discussed the problem of independence for the Philippines. Moving pictures were shown which showed indescribable beauty and also showed the amazing results of forty years of American influence. Mrs. Gerber wore a native dress and described the culture of the country and its dress and showed several pieces of hand-made materials full of color and native ideas. This meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cox as a buffet dinner given by the club.

Mrs. Julius Swanson, president, introduced the speaker. Guest for the evening were husbands of the members and Miss Dorothy Peterson, Supt. of Nurses at N. Warren State Hospital, Miss Ardele Whitman and Mrs. Helen Jones, teachers at Otto Township school and Mrs. John Fox, Jr. of Ludlow.

A board of Review was held at Boy Scout Headquarters on Monday night, Nov. 20 with the following conducting the review: Evert Johnson and Adolph Johnson.

Robert Johnson, aged sixteen, completed all the work necessary which gave him the high rank of Eagle Scout, something which all Scouts aim to become. This requires diligence and a great deal of interest over a long period of time and represents a knowledge of many things. Paul Johnson and James Christensen, age thirteen, became Life Scouts which is a splendid achievement for boys of this age. Donald Beckwith became a First Class Scout on the same evening. This is a fine beginning. Ludlow boys have shown a fine interest in badge-work.

An item of interest to everyone in Ludlow will be the announcement by Mrs. Julius Swanson of boxes to be placed on Tuesday, Nov. 28th, in Bohonik Swanson and Alder stores for the collecting of Christmas gifts to be given to disabled service men and women in government hospitals in the United States. A list will be shown near each box with suggestions for desired gifts. Among the things on the list are books, especially pocket-size novels... but no war stories, stationary, games, toilet articles, pocket knives, nice handkerchiefs, socks. For women... bobby pins, toilet articles, clothespins, games, etc. The annual collection of magazines will be made for veterans soon. Magazines most desired are recent copies of Reader's Digest, Geographic, Coronet, and any small magazine which is not too bulky and without advertisement. The Sunday Supplements are splendid magazines to add to the list. If you have any magazines please notify Mrs. Arthur Christensen, president of the Auxiliary, telephone 2521 Ludlow.

Bond sales are under way in Ludlow with Mr. E. W. Johnson as chairman and the following committee who will approach each of Robert W. Mackay, who had been a director of the Y. M. C. A. for 10 years and who had held the No. 1 Business Men's membership continuously over a period of many years. In respect to the memory of Mr. Mackay the entire campaign group stood for a minute in silent prayer.

Our readers will be interested in learning the personnel of the No. 1 team in the campaign. Captain Templeton's workers were R. G. Capell, Robert Amero, Rev. Wayne Furman, Ned Johnson, Harry Summers, Maxine Mathews and Felicia Lucia.

Rededication Service For First Baptists

The congregation of the First Baptist church will meet in the edifice on Market street at 7:30 this evening for a rededication service for which the Rev. Arthur M. Spiller, of Meadville, will return to his former parish as guest speaker.

Other program numbers will include the Scripture reading by L. J. Stoddard; early history of the church, Alice Sill Branch; early financing of the church, J. J. Mitchell; "Thankful Appreciations", H. D. Harris; burning of the mortgage, F. H. Hetrick.

Mrs. Clarence Swanson, organist, will play the Gounod "Aria" for the prelude and his "Marche Pontificale" for the recessional. Special choir anthems sung under the direction of Miss Viola Lindmark will be Krenser's "Prayer of Thanksgiving" and "Praise the Lord" by Wennerberg. There will also be moving pictures of the original dedicatory service.

All members and friends of the church are cordially invited to this service.

Spectacular "Arrest" of Brazilians Is Feature of Kiwanis Farewell for Couple

Considerable excitement was aroused among guests at the Warren Kiwanis club ladies' night banquet at the North Warren community house last evening when two officers, unknown to many in the crowd, entered the dining hall and announced they had a warrant for two of the guests—Commander and Mrs. Magno de Carvalho.

After approaching the speakers' table and handcuffing the two citizens of Brazil, who have been here for a little over four years on a war mission, the chief agent, who was revealed as Joe Gardner, read the warrant which charged Mr. and Mrs. de Carvalho with "deserting" the large number of friends they have made since they have been in the community.

The party, in the nature of a farewell for the commander and his family, was voted the most outstanding in the history of the club. There were about fifty Kiwanians and their ladies in attendance, with the event throughout taking on an international aspect.

While the guests were gathering, wives of the Kiwanians served appetizers in the spacious lounge quarters of the auditorium. The menu consisted of tomato juice, pickles, celery, stuffed olives, pork chops, mashed potatoes, cabbage salad, buttered peas, pumpkin pie with whipped cream, rolls, coffee. Preceding the meal, Carl Peterson, president, welcomed the ladies and other guests, and the group sang "America," after which the Rev. Wayne Furman, of First Methodist church, offered the invocation. During the serving John Stewart led in group singing with Jack MacDonald at the piano. Miss Fern Mostert pleased with several readings.

Hon. Allison D. Wade, a member of the club called upon to make a few remarks, presented a gift to the commander as "an ambassador of good will from Brazil to this county," and in turn suggested that the "county now has an opportunity to have an ambassador in a similar capacity to Brazil." In behalf of the club a Kiwanis ring was presented to the commander, along with a sheaf containing personal letters from every member.

Commander Carvalho, visibly moved, responded in most grateful terms, saying that "even in his own language he would be unable to find words to express appreciation of such good friends as he and Mrs. Carvalho have made since coming to Warren." He thanked the Kiwanians, stating that they had made possible his pleasant stay in the community. "You have done everything possible to make the foreigner from far away feel at home," he declared.

Charles Truran, of Meadville, lieutenant governor, Division One of the Kiwanis International, introduced, brought greetings to Commander and Mrs. Carvalho from the other ten clubs in the district. Mr. Truran in turn presented J. Belmont Mosser, the speaker of the evening, who delivered a most interesting discourse, touching on the present global conflict interspersed with humorous reminiscences and experiences. He took occasion to quote many statistics showing the part that Brazil is taking in the war with the Axis, and after making a plea for support of the Sixth War Loan drive, closed with an appropriate poem.

The program was in charge of Dr. J. Russell Elliott, the incoming president, and a committee. Appreciation was expressed for the fine cooperation received from the North Warren Civic club and special mention was made regarding the women who helped in the serving, with Mrs. John Redcliffe as chairman. Russell Hanson was chairman of the decoration committee and Conrad Anderson was in charge of the kitchen. The hall was appropriately decorated with flags of United States, Canada and Brazil, and the tables glistened with green candles, in banks of pom-poms and sprays of greens.

The program closed with Byron Swanson singing two solo numbers, "Goodbye" and "Old Man River." He was accompanied by Miss Lillian Larsen. The guests remained for a reception and social hour for Commander and Mrs. Carvalho and the guest speakers, who were accompanied by their wives.

... And so for the duration I have given up frilly frocks and am trim in khaki. I'm thrilled with headlines about the war in Europe. But you're in the Pacific—and the war won't be over for us until the rising sun goes down.

We can't think of our war successes in terms of successful engagements—without counting the toll in dying and wounded men. If I, as a Medical Department WAC, can help make the 'Road Back' less difficult for even only one battle-scarred veteran, then I am truly worthy of my great heritage as an American.

Army and Navy Grab Eleven Places On All-East Team

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
New York, Nov. 29.—(P)—Army and Navy, whose football teams combined to crush nine eastern collegiate foes by an average score of 60 to 4, grab nine of the 11 places on the All-Eastern team selected by the Associated Press after consultation with coaches and officials.

Only Tom Smith, chatter-box Yale guard, and George Savitsky, mountainous Pennsylvania tackle, break through the service school's domination on the first team.

John Green of Army, is the running mate for Smith. Other Cadets to make the first team are center Robert St. Onge, end George Poole and backs Glenn Davis and Felix (Doc) Blanchard. Davis is the nation's leading scorer.

Navy centers with four Midgies on the elite lineup. Don Whitmire was a unanimous choice for tackle and Leon Beamlett, Jr., got almost as much recognition for end. Hal Hamberg, Sparkplug member of the backfield, and Bobby Jenkins, Middle power runner, complete the lineup.

Seldom if ever have two schools so controlled football in a given area as did Army and Navy in the east this season.

Pennsylvania, co-leader in the Ivy league with Yale, was blanked by Navy 26 to 0, and crushed by Army, 62 to 7. The Quaker showing against Navy was the best any eastern school did in any game involving the two leaders and the club's efforts in the Army fray was the second best against that club.

Brown's loss to the Cadets by a 59 to 7 score was the best showing of an eastern club against Army.

Hamberg is the only repeater among the first teamers while Whitmire moved up from the second squad of a year ago. Davis was listed on the third team of 1943.

Years Ago In Local Sports

Warren High closed another football season with but three losses and one tie against eight wins. Coach Leidig's crew scored a total of 261 points to their opponents' 76.

The heavy fall of snow has been welcomed by the hunters. The local red-coats have boarded trains for the woods in order to be in a good section for the opening day of deer season.

The Franklin Daniel Boone Pioneers scored a 10-7 win over the Warren Volunteer Service Club on the YMCA court. The Franklin boys outplayed the local crew in every department of the game. Among Warren's players were Boyette, Evans, McIntyre, White, Baird and Denning.

Porter Marker will lead the Warren Tigers in their battle against the Clarion Independents in the booster game. On the line Chapel will play one of the ends, with Fadale on the other end. Reilly and Mathis will be tackles. Berdine and Pearce guards, and White-shot at center. The two Palm brothers, Danny Dawson, and Marker will make up the backfield.

Warren High announced the basketball schedule, which contains 26 games, three of them being afternoon games at Beatty. The Dragons will open against Endeavor, and play three more games before entering District Nine competition.

Gerry Archibald, who has given Warren fans plenty of good basketball in the past few years, will again bring the sport into the limelight this season. Archibald has feuded out for some of the best players around to play on the Hy-Ves Oils team.

Joe Fazio, Warren's foremost boxer, will go to St. Mary's where he will meet Michael Ondrich, Duquesne University fighter in a card sponsored by the Ushers Club. If Fazio is able to down Ondrich, he will be recognized as one of the state leaders. He has been training at the Y. M. C. A.

Honor performers at the Arcade Alleys last night were Sport Stanton, Frank Fadale, Lee Allen, Barney Malone, and Carl Patchen. Patchen is trying to arrange a match with the Kittanning Elks Club, of which George Pedlow is a member. Pedlow is formerly of Warren and was a member of the famous Nameless Five basketball team.

Chapter 11
LIGHTS were springing up in the palace grounds. Jason caught a glimpse of a guard, crashing through the shrubbery, wearing a flaming torch. From the balcony, Kilani screamed to him in Hawaiian.

Jason swung himself over and dropped. A man appeared out of the shrubbery, a bewildered guard carrying a rifle. Lights flickered through the trees as more soldiers rushed to the scene of the uproar. A bullet flattened itself against the wall near Jason's head.

Then a tall Hawaiian hurled himself forward and struck out with the butt of his gun. Jason felt himself falling, tried desperately to cling to the vines. They tore away and he fell, staggered for a moment, the world swimming dizzily about him. Again the rifle butt rose and fell. The blow landed with sickening force. The lights spun in a maddening circle as Jason plunged forward, felt himself sliding down, down into a black pit. Then darkness engulfed him and he lay still at the foot of the wall he had tried so hard to climb.

When he regained consciousness he was lying on his back. Someone was pouring water on his face from a gourd. He spluttered, sat up and saw that he was ringed about with soldiers, rifles ready, their faces harsh and cruel in the flickering light of the torches.

A BOARD the Vanity, Caleb Blake spent a sleepless night and was up at dawn, pacing the decks restlessly. Jason had not returned. Something had happened. Caleb cursed under his breath. That kunka girl was responsible for this, he'd wager. Well, he'd wait an hour or so, then, if Jason had not returned, he'd take a squad of men and start hunting for him.

Then, to Caleb's surprise, he saw four soldiers commanded by a chunky corporal come marching down the dock. From their uniforms he recognized them as members of the palace guard. He wondered what they were doing on the water-front at this time of day. The guards led a notoriously leisurely and comfortable life.

The corporal led his men aboard the Vanity. He came to where Caleb stood, and pulled a folded parchment from his belt. "You command?" he asked.

Caleb nodded.

"Read!" the corporal thrust the paper at him. Caleb unfolded it and saw at a glance that it was an order confiscating the ship and stating that no officer or member of the crew was to be allowed ashore.

"What does this mean?" Caleb demanded.

"By the king's order," pronounced the corporal solemnly, "Where is my brother?" Caleb asked uneasily. "What has happened?"

The corporal pointed dramatically across at the fort. "He stop inside," he said. "He is a prisoner of the king."

Caleb looked across at the ugly, squat outline of the fort. "What has Captain Blake done that he should be in prison?" he asked slowly.

The corporal shrugged his shoulders. "He break the king's tabu. The king, he say he get rid of him after Princess Lilia's wedding. Storing to death is the punishment."

Caleb got red in the face. His hands clenched themselves into very capable fists. He wanted to rush to his cabin, get his pistols and drive these men from the ship. Jason was in the fort in a cell, locked up because he had violated some silly custom. And

CAGE MEET

Basketball enthusiasts are reminded of the meeting to be held tonight at the YMCA to prepare the winter cage schedule on the Y court. The meeting will start at 7:30.

Captain of Ohio State Gets Award

New York, Nov. 29.—(P)—Bill Hackett, 191-pound guard on Ohio State's unbeaten and untied Western Conference champions, captured the outstanding lineman of the week award today in the ninth Associated Press poll.

Hackett, a 21-year-old junior from London, O., who has been elected captain of the 1945 Buckeyes, played a terrific game against Michigan on Saturday. He was on the field the full 60 minutes and smeared virtually every Wolverine play directed at his position. His tackling was superb, drawing from Coach Carroll Wood the comment that Hackett's play was "great." There is little doubt his play was responsible for a big part in the Buckeyes' 18-14 triumph.

George Savitsky, Penn tackle whose interception of a pass, stopped Cornell's best threat against the Quakers, and Purdue's tackle, Pat O'Brien, were two other outstanding linemen. Joe Dienhart, assistant Purdue line coach, said O'Brien played a "bang-up" game against Indiana.

SPORT SHORTS

Chicago, Nov. 29.—(P)—There'll be 125 bowlers, champions of their districts, here this weekend to start firing in a nine-day tournament that will have the unofficial national match game title and a $2,000 first prize as the spoils for the victor. Paul Krumke of Chicago, New National Match Game king will lead the delegations from 55 cities in 20 states, the official entry list discloses.

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 29.—(P)—Bobby Dobbs, Army halfback from Tulsa, has recovered from a leg injury suffered before the Duke game, and may see plenty of action against Navy Saturday. He is expected to start if Navy kicks off.

Paris, Nov. 29.—(P)—Baseball's first group of ball players to tour the European War Theatre, arrived yesterday. The group was composed of Mel Ott, manager of the New York Giants; Frankie Frisch, manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates; Bucky Walters, Cincinnati pitcher; Dutch Leonard, Washington twirler; and Roy Stockton, sports writer of the St. Louis Post Dispatch.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 29.—(P)—Gus Dorazio, Philadelphia, and Lee Savold, St. Paul, have been signed for a 10-round fight here Dec. 15. Bill Colbert, matchmaker for the Christie De Pauw American Legion Post, announced today. The bout will be the first professional program staged by the post, which holds St. Paul's only boxing franchise.

Mentors Are Eager For Friday Game

Drills have become exceedingly stiff and the competition for starting berths on the Warren High Dragon basketball team during the past two days is evident. Coach Joe Massa, in trying to pick the beginning quintet, has sent his charges through all kinds of offensive and defensive maneuvers in preparation for the opening battle on Friday night at the Beatty Gym.

Bob Jewell's Youngsville Eagles will provide the Massmen with their first game competition Friday evening, the two second squads opening up at 7 o'clock and the varsities getting under way at 8. Fans who have not, as yet, secured their season tickets are reminded to do so. The duceats will be sold at the ticket booth at the game.

The two opposing coaches are anxious to get into the thick of things Friday. Both mentors are Warren boys, each having played football and basketball while attending the local High School. Massa, after graduating from Edinboro State Teacher's College, coached several years at Kinzua and a season at Sheffield. Jewell was a graduate from Clarion Teacher's College, and then came to Warren, assisting in football before going to Youngsville this year. Both coaches have laudable records behind their coaching careers.

Warren cage fans will remember the 48-24 lacing administered by the Dragon crew a few years ago by Massa's Sheffield quintet. The game should be a fine battle, although the local aggregation has a slight advantage.

Neither coach has announced any definite starting lineup, many changes being made during the early practices. This game will be the opener for both crews, the Second team opening at 7 and the varsity boys hitting the limelight at 8.

SCOUT SALE TO BENEFIT CAMP FUND
The sight of girls on the street with piles of clothing in their arms on Thursday will not mean that the family is moving but rather that the girl is preparing for the Girl Scout rummage sale at 22 Pennsylvania avenue, west. The building will be open from two o'clock on Thursday to receive articles. A call to Girl Scout headquarters will bring a Girl Scout to pick up clothing or furniture which may have outlived its usefulness to its present owner but which may serve someone else for years to come.

In these days of shortages, everyone goes to rummage sales for necessities as well as for curiosity. Children's underwear is the most popular item with shoes and men's trousers close in favor. Odd coats and pants for work, especially in the larger sizes, are eagerly sought. The Girl Scout rummage sale will be conducted by the camp committee of the local council in order to finance needed repairs at Camp Birdsall Edey. Mrs. F. L. Abendroth is the chairman.

ASK RESERVATIONS OF EASTERN STARS
Eastern Star members here are preparing to welcome their Pennsylvania worthy grand matron, Mrs. Maude T. Gorman, of Smithport, on Tuesday evening of next week and will honor her with dinner at six o'clock at the YWCA. Reservations must be made no later than Friday of this week by contacting Grace Schuler, Alice Redding or Phyllis Page. The regular meeting following the dinner will be held in the Masonic Temple building.

In the south the French First Army closed an eight-mile gap in its lines south of the Dollar river between Belfort and Mulhouse, pinching off an enemy salient of 50 square miles and trapping a sizeable force of German troops.

East of St. Avold, where Patton's forces have driven to within eight miles of Saarbrücken, Hawkins said the Germans had rallied at some points although the 80th Division's 317th regiment still was "moving briskly" after capture of one town.

U. S. Ninth Army forces, advancing toward Cologne astride the Adolf Hitler superhighway, fought to the Roer river both north and south of the highway fortress town of Julich. On the north the Ninth captured Barmen. To the south it took Kirchberg. In both towns the troops battled in knee-deep floods from the rain-swollen Roer.

Further south another ninth army infantry column captured Altford, approaching the Roer at another point.

Toward the southern end of the Allied front, American Seventh Army troops have advanced within three miles of Haguenau in their northward drive through the Rhine valley above Strasbourg. It was in this sector that the German radio yesterday declared German forces were executing two "planned withdrawals" to a new line.

OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

Letter Tells of Reunion of Four Warren Boys In France

Cpl. Paul R. Graham has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Graham, 700 East street, that he had the pleasure of meeting Earl Rossman, Jack Mink and Stuart Nelson, all of Warren, while on duty in France. The boys had quite a chat and earnestly agreed it would be great to get back to the "good old USA".

Cpl. Graham entered the service on December 8, 1942, received his basic training at Camp Haan, Calif., and was sent to England in June, 1943, remaining there nearly a year before D-Day. Since then he has been in France, Belgium and Germany, serving in an anti-aircraft division of the First Army.

The Grahams have had word, also, from another son, Clifford C. Graham, radioman second class, that he recently shared the pleasure of a meeting with two of his fraternity brothers somewhere in the Pacific: Dick Curren, serving on a destroyer transport, and Bob Barber, with a destroyer escort.

He writes that even though they had only a few minutes together, "it was well seeing each other."

Radioman Graham also held a reunion recently with his brother-in-law, Allan Grosch, somewhere in the Pacific. Also mentioned in his letter was the fact that he had been among those permitted to pay respects recently to General Douglas MacArthur.

Clifford entered the service in November, 1942, and, after boot training at Sampson, N. Y., was sent to Bedford Springs radio school. He was graduated there on May 23, 1943, and was sent to the naval air base in Richmond, Fla., until he was assigned to the Pacific fleet in June of this year.

Further News On Death of Local Soldier

A special dispatch received today from Fifth Army headquarters in Italy contains the news that Pvt. Raymond W. Hammerbeck, 19 South South street, who was killed in action one year ago tomorrow, was a member of the 1st Battalion of the 168th Regiment which recently received the Distinguished Unit Citation for seizing and holding important German positions on Mount Pantano, Italy, anchor of the German winter line in 1943, and opening the way for the Fifth Army drive to the Rapido river valley.

The battalion is a unit of the 34th "Red Bull" Division of Lt. Gen. Mark Clark's Fifth Army, now in the Gothic Line in northern Italy. The dispatch says that for four days and nights, from November 29 to December 3, the battalion, after storming and seizing the vital objective, clung tenaciously to its positions despite ferocious Nazi attacks, severe casualties, bitter weather, rugged terrain and almost insuperable supply, communication and evacuation problems. The unit's stand forced the Germans to abandon their winter line.

Enemy losses were estimated at 400 killed and wounded while the 1st Battalion suffered 24 killed and 174 wounded. The commander was wounded and 15 other officers, including two company commanders, were casualties.

You Save tin cans...

You Save old magazines...

...but do You Save your DOLLARS

"Sure," most folks will answer. "Every-one knows we should save money."

The question is: "Do you save your money?"

Are you really giving as much day-by-day thought to planned saving and to planned spending as you are to the salvage of waste paper and tin cans? Are you as careful about putting extra dimes in the bank as you are about putting waste fats in the grease can?

If you are not, you are letting down your Country. You are letting down YOURSELF.

Planned spending and planned saving are so important today. Together, they help hold down the cost of living... they help insure a strong America with jobs paying worth while dollars after the war... they give you a financial backlog when present war jobs cease... they give you dollars to spend for worth while things when the right time for spending comes. Be realistic. Take a pencil and work out on paper your plan for spending, your plan for saving.

Think it over, Mr. and Mrs. America. Planned spending and planned saving are a war job—just as much of a war job as work in a munitions factory.

And you are loafing on the job if you are spending needlessly... if you fail to buy War Bonds steadily... if you are not saving regularly at your bank.

Help the nation's efforts to keep your living costs DOWN, the buying power of your dollar UP.
